Punishments: Depending on the severity of the offense, the Anti-Ragging Committee may impose the following punishments:

- Suspension from classes and academic privileges.
- Withholding scholarships or benefits.
- Debarring from examinations or evaluations.
- Withholding results.
- Suspension or expulsion from the hostel.
- Cancellation of admission.
- Rustication from the institution.
- Expulsion from the institution, with a ban on admission to other institutions.
- Collective punishment if the offenders are not identified.

Legal Implications: As per the directives of the Supreme Court of India, ragging is banned inside and outside the campus. Ragging is a cognizable offense, and those found guilty will face legal action.

Undertaking: Every student must sign a declaration at admission, committing not to engage in ragging. Students and parents must submit an anti-ragging affidavit online via the following links:
- UGC Notice
- UGC Guidelines

SAY NO TO RAGGING

This policy aims to create a safe and supportive environment for all students at Apollo School and College of Nursing, ensuring that every student can thrive without fear of harassment or intimidation.
